Content:

Referring to current reports No. 21/2018, 22/2018, 23/2018, 24/2018, 25/2018, 26/2018, 28/2018, 29/2018, 32/2018 and 33/2018 pertaining to the filing by Serinus Energy plc (the "Company") with the Warsaw Stock Exchange (the "WSE") of an application to suspend the trading in its shares and its subsequent extension, the Management of the Company hereby informs that today the Company has filled with the WSE an application to extend the suspension period by one business day.

The extension of the suspension period is necessary to complete the procedure connected with the change of ISIN in the relevant depository systems. The said procedure is under way and based on the information currently available to the Company it is likely to be finalised on 17 May 2018 and consequently the trading of the Company's shares on WXS under the new ISIN could be resumed on 18 May 2018.
