The well flowed 6.0 million standard cubic feet per day (“MMscf/d”) (approximately 1,000 boe/d) on test. As previously announced, the Moftinu – 1004 well was drilled to 1,000 metres.

The well has five gas-bearing zones that appeared on logs: A2 sand; A2.2 sand; A3 sand; B1 sand; and B3 sand. The three deeper zones were completed, being A2 sand, A2.2 sand, and A3 sand. The two shallower zones had gas pay on logs but were not completed. These zones may be exploited later in the life of the well.

After completing the perforation and well completion operations, the Company initiated a flow test whereby all three deeper zones were tested comingled. The well testing procedure and results are as follows:

- On the largest choke size (40/64”), the well flowed at an average rate of 6.0 “MMscf/d” with no progressive pressure decrease throughout the test.
- During the final flow period (15 hours) on a reduced choke size (36/64”), the well flowed at 5.5 MMscf/d with no progressive pressure decrease throughout the test.
